

Press Release

September 27, 2017 - Livingston, Texas

The Mayor and City Council of the City of Livingston are pleased to announce the appointment of Ellie Monteaux as Assistant City Manager, effective October 1, 2017.

Ellie has been employed with the City of Livingston for over 17 years and has served as City Secretary since her appointment August 1, 2007.

Ellie is actively involved in the Texas Municipal Clerks Association and earned the distinction of Texas Registered Municipal Clerk in 2012. She is also a member of the International Institute of Municipal Clerks having received the national designation of Certified Municipal Clerk earlier this year.

"Ellie has served the City faithfully and efficiently in several capacities, and the City Council and I are delighted to bring her administrative capabilities and knowledge of the City's operations to the forefront to assist in the City's day to day management." - Mayor Clarke Evans

"I am very thankful to have been a part of the City of Livingston for the past 17 years. I look forward to serving the citizens of Livingston as Assistant City Manager and City Secretary for many years to come." - Ellie Monteaux

Ellie and husband Kenneth relocated to Livingston in March, 2000 from Arizona. They are blessed with a large extended family throughout Texas. The highlight of their lives continues to be their wonderful daughter and granddaughters.
